            I'm Chaitanya Vishwakarma, a first-year B.Tech student at KIET Ghaziabad, specializing in

            CSE (AI & ML). I'm passionate about technology, programming, and building creative digital projects.

            I enjoy learning new tech stacks, problem-solving, and exploring AI/ML concepts. My goals include becoming a skilled developer and contributing to impactful projects.
